Access to Information Manual

As required by Section 51 of the Promotion to Access of Information Act No 2 of 2000 (“PROATIA”) Sherpa Business Communications (Pty) Ltd (“The Company”)

1. Introduction

The object of PROATIA is to give you access to the records of the Company under certain circumstances. PROATIA seeks to promote a society in which you have access to information to enable you to exercise and protect your rights, and to promote a culture of transparency and accountability.

Section 51 of PROATIA requires all private bodies to compile a manual containing various information elements including the Company details, a description of the records of the Company, as well as the means by which a record may be accessed.

The Company is a private body and therefore this manual has been compiled in terms of and in order to comply with Section 51 of PROATIA.

7. Detail on how to make a Request for Access – Section 51(e)

The requester must complete the Request for Access Form (Appendix B) and submit this form together with a request fee, to the head of the Company.

The form must be submitted to the head of the Company at his/ her address, fax number, or electronic mail address
The form must:

- provide sufficient particulars to enable the head of the Company to identify the record/s requested and to identify the requester
- indicate which form of access is required
- specify a postal address or fax number of the requester in the Republic
- identify the right that the requester is seeking to exercise or protect, and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right
- hero information manual v 2 04 June 2014 Page 4 of 9
- if in addition to a written reply, the requester wishes to be informed of the decision on the request in any other manner, to state that manner and the necessary particulars to be informed in the other manner
- if the request is made on behalf of another person, to submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the head of the Company.

8. Decision regarding the Request

PROATIA provides for numerous grounds upon which the company may refuse to grant you access to a record of the Company. These grounds for refusal are to protect

- the privacy of another person
- commercial information of another company
- confidential information of another person
- the safety of individuals and property
- records privileged from production in legal proceedings
- research information

[3]

You will be notified in writing whether your request has been approved or denied within 30 calendar days after receipt by the Company of the completed Request for Access Form. Should any record of the Company requested by you not be found or not exist, the Company will, by way of affidavit, notify you that it is not possible to give access to that particular record.

9. Access to Records

If your request for access to records of the company is approved, access will be provided in the form as the Company reasonably determines, unless you have requested access in a specific form.

10. Fees

Section 52 (3) states that fees payable for access to records are to be prescribed. The prescribed fees are as set out in the Fee Schedule which is available at www.sahrc.org.za, a summary of which is attached to this manual marked Annexure C.
